GRAVEYARD GRAFT CASE.

Former Supervisor Tells of Dividing Bribe With Defendant.

Pierce Retains Glidden Trophy — Express Clerk's Bond Deal — Thaw to Drop Lunacy Plea—Insurance Losses by Big Fire — N. Y. C. Train Ran Into Landslide.

The prosecution rested Saturday noon at Warsaw, N. Y., in the trial of John W. Neff, the former auditor of Erie county, who had been indicted for grafting in connection with the buying of an old graveyard for an armory site. The defense will be in by Tuesday night, it is thought, and the case will go to the jury Wednesday.

John H. Stock, said to be one of the supervisors who plotted with Neff to mulct the county, went on the stand and described how, acting under Neff's orders, he got a bribe of $5,000 from Fred Greiner, now postmaster of Buffalo. Greiner was attorney for the cemetery association that took the graveyard. Stock said he sold the $5,000 to Neff and the others, who were in a room of a Buffalo hotel, and there the money was divided. Stock got $500.

Under cross-examination Stock admitted that he did not know how many times he had been bribed in his 12 years as supervisor. Greiner was indicted for bribery in connection with the cemetery scandal some time ago, but the indictment was quashed, as there was no corroborative evidence to sustain Stock's allegation.

Pierce Retains the Glidden Trophy.

The 13 automobile tourists who Saturday finished the 1,134 miles run through New York, Canada, Maine and New Hampshire to Bretton Woods, without penalties during the 10 days test over a great variety of roads, for the second trophy offered by Charles J. Glidden of Lowell, Mass., were given equal credits, but the trophy remains with the present holder, Percy Pierce of the Buffalo Automobile club. Sixty-six cars started from Buffalo on July 12 and made runs averaging about 130 miles a day with three stops at Saratoga, Quebec and Rangleys. When the tourists left the latter place Saturday morning for the final 125 miles run to Bretton 14 had clean scores. No penalties were inflicted until the cars were within six miles of Bretton Woods, when Ezra E. Kirk of Buffalo slipped a chain and lost two minutes.

The following finished with clean scores: P. S. Flinn, Pittsburg; G. W. Davis, Buffalo; W. E. Wright, Springfield; W. C. Walker, Hartford; E. Keeler, Lansing, Mich.; Charles B. Burman, Cleveland; George Soules, Toledo; F. E. Wing, Boston; G. G. Bass, Buffalo; L. K. Petre, Cleveland; G. F. Barrett, Hartford; Percy Pierce, Buffalo, and A. E. Hughes, Philadelphia.

Nerby Express Clerk's Deal.

J. S. Bache & Co., bankers, have purchased the $5,800,000 of Panama canal bonds which were recently allotted by the treasury department to Samuel Nerby, an express company's clerk of New York.

Bache & Co. have in turn disposed of the bonds to Flak & Robinson, who were the successful bidders for the greater portion of the issue. Through his knowledge of the peculiar nature of the money market Nerby secured $5,800,000 of the new Panama canal bonds and all they cost him was a 2 cent postage stamp which was placed on the letter he sent to Washington bidding for the bonds. The price of the bonds already has advanced to 104.40, which means a profit of $2,024 for the clerk.

Lunacy Plea to Be Dropped.

It is reiterated in New York city that the proposition to make an attempt to secure a lunacy committee to adjudge Harry K. Thaw insane has been dropped even by counsel retained by Mrs. William Thaw. It is understood counsel, consisting of ex-Judge William M. K. Olcott and Terence J. McManus, have decided that such a motion would meet with ultimate defeat and therefore it has been eliminated. Thaw will be allowed to go to trial as he desires. The emotional insanity plea will be that offered by Clifford W. Harridge, the personal counsel and attorney of record in the case. Ex-Judge Olcott, it understood, is retained by the mother of the prisoner to look out for Harry's interests—not in the way of any action on his part but to aid in every bit of evidence he can secure.

$39,150,000 Profit in Timber.

At the present price for stumpage the Weyerhaeuser Timber company's big purchase in Washington from the northern Pacific six years ago looms up as one of the best speculative moves ever made in the Northwest. In the deal 900,000 acres changed hands at $5.50 an acre, or $5,550,000. It is estimated that the same property now is worth at least $15,000,000, or a profit of $39,150,000.

Insurance Losses by Big Fire.

The confagration in San Francisco and other California cities and villages, following the earthquake of last April, cost the fire insurance companies doing business in the state of New York $125,822,067, nearly $20,000, 000 more than they estimated it would in their report last May to the state insurance department. The figures now made public are final and reported under oath.

Premier Stolypin on the Situation.

Premier Stolypin has this to say of the Russian home policy: "There are two distinct movements in Russia. The first is social and includes the labor and agrarian problems. The second is political. "The former has all our sympathy and will be the object of our most tentative study. The second will be dealt with as circumstances dictate. "Force is required in all countries to effect a revolution; but, I repeat and cannot repeat too strongly, that reaction finds no place in our program, and that all the reforms consistent with the highest spirit of liberalism will be carried out when the ground is prepared."

Opinion of Count Witte.

The correspondent at Aix-les-Bains of The Daily Telegraph of London has forwarded a long interview with Count Witte, the former premier of Russia, on the subject of the dissolution of the representative chamber of parliament. Count Witte said he could not approve of the trend of parliament's activity. He expressed his pleasure with the correct attitude of foreign politicians and statements toward Russia in her present trouble. "There are," he said, "a very few regrettable exceptions. I decline to believe that the exception which took place in England a few days ago expresses the true feeling of the English people."

Alligator is Near Extinction.

The American alligator is likely to go the way of the American buffalo and alligator hides may become as rare as eggs of the great auk, according to a report just issued by the department of commerce and labor.

The consumption of alligator skins is greater now than ever before, approximately 250,000 hides annually. The quantity of alligators has been decreased in all of the Southern states and it is declared to be only a question of a few years when it will be impossible to obtain the hides at a price that will warrant their employment in the manufacture of leather.

Express Ran into Landslide.

The Pacific express of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad, which left New York on Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock, was wrecked near New Hamburg, seven miles north of Fishkill Landing, and about eight miles south of Poughkeepsie, at 11:20 p. m.

The train ran into a landslide which had been washed down upon the tracks by the heavy rains of the afternoon. The engine and baggage car were thrown from the rails and, tearing across the southbound tracks, plunged into the Hudson river. The engineer, and fireman were killed and a dozen passengers were injured.

Doctors Lose in Phone Fight.

The Bell Telephone Co. has won a victory after a long contest with the doctors of the town of Pittston, Pa., who were fighting against paying business rates for their telephones. They had been paying the residential rate. The medical men ordered their telephones out, and the drug stores came to the rescue, answering all calls for the doctors by messenger. Then the telephone management hit upon a scheme. When a call came for a doctor it was sent to physicians in near by towns. The Pittston doctors saw their business falling off and yielded.

Elevator Man Crushed to Death.

Michael Davey, aged about 50 years was instantly killed in an elevator accident in the department store of Burke, Fitzsimmons, Hone & Co., at Rochester, where he was employed as elevator man. He leaned out of the elevator door and started the car before getting back inside. Handicapped by an artificial leg, he was unable to move quickly and his body was caught about the head and shoulders between the door of the elevator and the ground floor of the building.

Gift in Lieu of a Fine.

U. S. Ambassador Whitehall Reid, who recently pleaded ambassadorial privilege when his chauffeur was arrested at Barnet for violating the speed law, which caused the police to withdraw the summons, has donated $150 to the Barnet hospital. The money was given in place of a fine that probably would have been imposed had not the act of parliament rendered the ambassador free from prosecution.

Constantine Proved an Alibi.

Gentry of Chicago on Jan. 6 last, has been discharged from the Dutchess county jail a free man. Constantine is not the man wanted by the Chicago authorities, although he bears a remarkably close resemblance to the murderer.

MRS. COREY IS DIVORCED

And Gets Custody of Her 16-Year-Old Son Allan.

Mrs. Corey Stated That Before Her Petition For Divorce Was Filed She Negotiated Through Her Attorney's Financial Settlement—Respondent's Sister an Interesting Witness.

Reno, Nev., July 31.—Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, was awarded a divorce in the second district court of Nevada yesterday. The case was submitted without argument and the jury took but one ballot. The jury was out but a few minutes.

Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree and the custody of her 16-year-old son Allan Corey. She drove at once to her home in Riverside avenue, where she says she will continue to reside. No evidence was submitted by the defense and there was no argument.

The question of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, touching upon this phase of the case, stating in May, 1906, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed, she negotiated through her attorneys a financial settlement with her husband.

"I am a resident of Reno, Nev.," said Mrs. Corey, when placed on the stand, "and the wife of William Ellis Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married on Dec. 1, 1883, at Pittsburg, Pa., and lived together until May 1, 1905. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York."

"I followed him and held a conversation with him in the Hotel Lorraine. It was there that he told me that he had decided to live apart. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

Mrs. Corey added that she came to Reno for her health and that she had no intention of bringing an action for divorce at the time she took up her residence in Nevada. She stated that she selected Reno upon the advice of her sister-in-law, Miss Addie Corey, that they considered this place their future home and expected to live here in the future. She stated that she was best suited for the custody of her son and asked the court to place him in her care.

Mrs. Corey was visibly affected while telling her story. She testified without evasion and in a clear voice. Her attorneys feared that she would collapse, as her health has suffered since the separation.

In his opening statement, one of his attorneys, J. R. Redding of New York, stated that she had been driven to a separation and the divorce proceedings by the sensational stories printed in the newspapers.

"Is it true that newspaper notoriety was the principal factor in your separation from Mr. Corey and is responsible for this proceeding?" asked Benjamin Currier, one of her attorneys. "Such is not the case. The stories that may have appeared in the press had nothing to do with it," said Mrs. Corey.

Miss Addie Corey, sister of the respondent, was an interesting witness. She corroborated Mrs. Corey's statement that Corey had deserted his wife and told how she and her aged mother had made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation.

Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.

"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked. "I do not," she replied. "Why?"

"For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age. I do not think any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age."

"Do you mean all New York men, Miss Corey?" continued the attorney. "I mean wealthy New York men."

Allan Corey stated that at the time of the parting his father called him into his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. "He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side."

Several citizens of Reno were introduced to establish the residence in Nevada of the plaintiff.

NEW TROUBLE FOR ICEMAN.

Trying to Break Washington Famine. He Violates Smoke Law.

Washington, July 31.—Samuel A. Kimberly, local manager for the American ice company, who was recently indicted, with others, for trying to monopolize the ice business in Washington, now faces a new charge.

The ice supply ran short, ice ships from Maine were overdue and public indignation was running high, when Mr. Kimberly worked his ice manufacturing plant here to the limit of its capacity. He says he was just congratulating himself on having done something to help the situation, when he received from the district court officers a notice, on July 25, stating that thick black or gray smoke was seen coming from the chimney of the ice company. The first time it continued for half a minute, the second time for two minutes and the third time for a minute and a half.

Mr. Kimberly expects to be haled to police court and he declares he will demand a jury trial to see whether 12 men will let him be punished because for a few minutes smoke came from his furnaces in his zeal to make ice for the people of Washington.

Soldier Replied to Archbishop.

Odessa, July 31.—During a thundershower service for the dissolution of the lower house of parliament in the cathedral, the archbishop declared among other things that the members of the opposition were anarchists and enemies of the republic. When he had finished a soldier made a speech in which he said it was not the opposition but men like the archbishop who were the real enemies of the republic. A scene of confusion ensued, amid which the soldier was arrested.

Appeal For Destitute Zionists.

Zion City, Ill., July 31.—John C. Hatley, receiver for the Zion City industries, has issued an appeal to the few moneyed followers of the Dowie doctrine to contribute for the relief of the destitute of the community. The receiver says a large percentage of the population is underfed and insufficiently clothed and the land into which they put their savings has little value under existing conditions. Prompt relief is needed.
